Annual Holiday Open House

Saturday, November 15, 2008
11:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Join us! Warm up with espresso and great food! Get great tips for winter gardening from our knowledgeable staff. See our gift shop lit up and dripping with beautiful ornaments and holiday trimmings.

This year at our Open House we'll feature two distinctive approaches to container gardening:

Janit Calvo of Two Green Thumbs will be here to showcase her delightful 'miniature gardens.'

From 1pm to 3pm, our talented staff Container Designers, Corinne Kennedy and Mary Holdsworth will show you how to create your own beautiful container gardens using our new container gardening stage and accessories.

Let Us Give Thanks

The best thing we can ever do is to be grateful. The best feeling we can ever have is gratitude. When we are grateful our hearts cannot help but be open. When our hearts are open we cannot help but see the beauty of the Earth and her people—all of us—creatures great and small. When we see the beauty of the Earth space opens up inside of us for the rebirth of active love.

Active love sets us to work every day making and doing for ourselves and others so that we can come home and provide for ourselves and others. With active love we seek out our people to talk, work and be with. Active love bonds us to our community. With active love we'll vote for change. Active love will send us outside at winter's waning so that we can garden with gratitude and see the beauty of the Earth...and so the cycle goes around.

A fall day—a seasonal event—an open house at your local nursery sharing good food and seeing friends and neighbors is a good place to start. Will you join us and take this auspicious autumn moment to start a chain reaction? Let us give thanks.

Improving on Tradition

Our customers have been making beautiful holiday wreaths, swags and centerpieces for years. Whether they use our greens or bring in their own, it's always a treat to watch them exercise their creativity.

This year we're offering a series of free Wreath Making Seminars for those of you who want to adopt this tradition but are a little unsure about where to start.

Wednesday, November 26, 2008 at 10am
Wednesday, December 3, 2008 at 6pm
Wednesday, December 7, 2008 at 12pm

Our staff will show you all the tricks -basic to elaborate- to making gorgeous green holiday decorations for yourselves and others. Bring your own greens if you like and as always, there's complimentary hot apple cider. Call the nursery to sign up for a seminar and/or if you just want to book the wreath making stations. We can't wait to see you!

Reach Out West Seattle

This holiday season we are happy to continue our tradition of helping you help two very worthy community outreach organizations:

Christmas Tree delivery is free in West Seattle but if you choose you may donate $5.00 for your tree delivery. The nursery will match all delivery donations and the proceeds will go to Southwest Youth and Family Services in the New Year.

And...

The proceeds of all sales of selected eco-friendly Brushkin animal ornaments will go to the West Seattle Helpline.

Holiday Savings!

When you're ready to buy your Christmas Tree go to www.westseattlenursery.com and download our latest coupon.
